Hot cars stay cool on hot day for 2010 Buicks in the Park

By Jan Wacker

Nearly 90 classic Buicks came to Vancouver's Esther Short Park to participate in the Portland chapter's annual All Buick Show on Sunday, August 15. It was the club's first time at this venue, which fortunately offered plenty of shade on an extremely hot day. An added bonus was the Vancouver Farmers Market on the adjacent block, with vendors offering a wide assortment of ethnic and other dishes. Shopping was also readily available both at the market and nearby downtown shops, so there was no shortage of things to do and places to visit. When you add that to the viewing of all those beautiful classic Buicks, it was a day to remember—especially for the winners. Here are the first-place winners at Buicks in the Park, with photos as available. (Apologies to those who won but do not see their cars pictured. We were unable to photograph every car in advance of the awards ceremony and the cars' departure.)

Portland Chapter Special Award

Roger Stuart, who brought the most cars (plus drivers and a built-in cheering section). He would have had six, but there were mechanical difficulties and “only” five made it to the show.

Thanks for your enthusiastic participation, Roger!
