

After our May 2012 breakfast meeting, we took a mini-tour of the Historic Columbia Gorge Highway. Dr. Bob Hadlow, ODOT historian led the way. Bob has studied and documented the conception, design, construction and evolution of this northwest treasure and shared some of his knowledge at three stops: Portland Women's Forum Overlook, Crown Point, and Ainsworth Park. The photos below were taken by Arland Dower and Fred Rau.

